

Gear Changers' Quinti-Spiral Technology

Quinti-Spiral Technology is based on the principle that all humans are on 5 (Quinti) separate, yet integrated, personal spirals of evolvement.

Each of the 5 inner spirals displays itself in different behaviour patterns, ways of communications and values.

Each human Quinti-Spiral combination is unique due to specific DNA and cellular memory, but is also recognisable in society. This means that there are patterns of behaviour by which groups of people could be recognised, managed, moved through the chaos and order of change and evolved within their own Quinti-Spiral so as to benefit self-evolvement as well as community and organisational development.

When we can harness the deepest inner yearning of each individual for success, fulfilment, joy and happiness, we will develop families, communities, organisations and countries that expand and live by those life qualities too.

When this magnificent and unique Gear Changers technology is chosen as a tool for meaningful development, it can be applied towards:

- Individual growth and career choice
- Team binding and management
- Organisational growth
- Change management on an individual, team or organisational basis
- Conflict management

There are many outcomes and benefits to be reaped through the utilization of the Quinti Spiral Technology as explained in various sections of our website.

THE QUINTI-SPIRAL

In order to live on PURPOSE, you have to understand who YOU are.
In order to interact effectively with the world around you, you have to understand who others are.

Human Quinti-Spiral Technology provides profiles to this effect in an infinite possibility of combinations from the following range:

Values

The constant evolvement of human values has been empirically measured by a team of researchers and is graphically represented in a multicoloured spiral which displays the various value systems of society

Traditional, Group Consensus, Ritualistic	Individual Power, Might Makes Right	Discipline, Truth, Honour, Justice	Achiever, Ambition, Success, Entrepreneur	People & Earth Concern, Harmony, Crusader For Causes	Visionary, Integrated Systems, Lateral Thinker	Holistic Energy, Universal Understanding
Purple values	Red values	Blue values	Orange values	Green values	Yellow values	Turquoise values
